The death of George S. Brown, Senator elect from the counties of Adams, Jay and Wells, was misreported. Mr. Brown is in our list. It will be corrected heretofore.

GRAND SOCIAL MILITARY COLLEGE PARTY.—There will be a grand social military college party at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening, the 26th inst. The party will be supplied with good music and the best of prompters. Prices of admission will be as usual.

BOOK KEEPER AND COLLECTOR.—A competent and experienced book-keeper and collector, who can keep books in any branch of business, in any situation in this city. A middle-aged man, and a Democrat, will be preferred. Address Box 53, Indianapolis, giving references, qualifications, amount of salary required, etc.

QUERY.—Did our venerable friend, James Blake, Sr., and our young friend, ex-Senator Newcomb, settle on any plan to prevent the election of a Democrat in the State? We understand that the subject was fully canvassed by them at the Sabbath School last Sunday. Did they submit the proposition to a vote of the children?

In our article yesterday detailing the circumstances of the heartless robbery at a saloon we did not intend to be understood that the proprietor was at all unkind. It was unfortunate for him that the affair happened at his house. We are told that he was not at home at the time, and we doubt not that no one regrets the affair more than he does. There is a good prospect that the robbers will be caught yet.

SEND IN THE RETURNS.—The counties of Adams, Dearborn, Ripley, Boone, Parke, Carroll and Tipton have not yet sent in the election returns to the office of the Secretary of State. The other counties in the State, even the most remote, have forwarded theirs. While the return from one county is out, the official table cannot be made up. We hope the delinquent counties will hurry up, for we want to publish the official table at once, and not have to dribble it over six months' issue of our paper.

DEATH OF REV. PERRY HALL.—The Rev. Perry Hall, Chaplain of the 79th regiment, died yesterday evening at half past six o'clock, of typhoid fever contracted in the discharge of his duty with his regiment. Mr. Hall arrived at home on Thursday last. He left his regiment at Wild Cat when enfeebled by disease. The journey prostrated him and he rapidly sunk under the fatal fever that has cut down so many who have gone forth in the vigor of youth to battle for their country. Mr. Hall, before his appointment to the army, was the pastor of Christian Chapel, and was a young minister of fine abilities and great promise.

METROPOLITAN HALL.—The lovers of the drama had a nice treat last night. The announcement that Miss Jane Combs would appear as Lady Evelyn in the White Secret drew a large and fashionable audience. And they were not disappointed in the high expectations formed of the young, talented and beautiful actress. Her rendition of the character was all that the most critical could ask, and she was well sustained throughout. Mr. Riley as Sir Walter did nobly. The play is new here. The plot is good, and the language and sentiment fine. The scene is laid in England during the wars between the Parliamentarians and the Cavaliers. It could be repeated and draw an overflowing house.

To-night Miss Combs appears as Pauline in the Lady of Lyons.

For the Daily State Sentinel.

The Pulpit and the Nigger.

Mr. Editor: It is seldom I attempt to write for the press, and would not make an effort on the present occasion, did I not think it my duty. What I wish to say is this: We have in our community men who profess to be called of God to preach the Gospel of Christ. I listened to a sermon on last Sabbath from a man who professes to be thus called; but very little of Christ was in the sermon. It amounted to little more than a political harangue, the nigger being the chief feature in it. I am of the opinion that if Mr. Colclough preaches many more sermons like that, he will do to empty benches. Does he not know that the people here are averse to the nigger? Does he not know also that if the President's proclamation goes into effect, Indiana will swarm with them? And does he not know that every free nigger imported into this State is to be degraded white labor and white men?

Christ, when upon earth, drove those from the temple who sold doves on the Sabbath day because it was a holy place, for those professing to be called of him to stand up in his sanctuary and sow the seeds of discord—retailing doctrines which all can neither believe nor sanction? The gospel, to be spread, must be preached in its purity—all love when it is thus dispensed. But all do not believe that emancipation of the negro is gospel. Out upon such preaching!

A LISTENER.

WESTERN LAND AND TAXES.—As many of our readers interested in Western land have suffered annoyance and loss in the payment of their taxes and found much difficulty in obtaining correct information of the same, we would state that Wm. Y. Wiley, our well-known real estate agent, has the best facilities for attending to such matters, and by intrusting such business to him much trouble would be avoided by non-resident holders of land in the Western States. See his card in another column.

From Washington, October 26.—The Times's special says:

We have no reports to-night sustaining the rumors current here of fighting on the Upper Potomac.

The enemy is reported in Frederick as having evacuated Winchester and to be moving towards Gordonsville.

A heavy rain storm is prevailing which bids fair to rest the Potomac.

We have intelligence from the South through a source entitled to credit that the rebels have ventured upon the dangerous policy of arming their negroes. In Atlanta, Montgomery and other cities it is said negro regiments have already been organized and equipped with weapons, and a recent North Carolina paper states that about 800 black soldiers offered by whites have been sent to the front for instruction in garrison work.

At the request of Gen. Wadsworth the New York regiments captured at Harper's Ferry and paroled, who have been sent west with the view of operating against the Indians have been ordered back to New York to do frontier duty.

There are about 3,500 in all and they are greatly dissatisfied at being ordered west.

Glenn House, Baltimore, has been taken by the Government for hospital purposes.

A dispatch to the Herald, dated Fairfax Court House, Oct. 26, says:

A detachment of about eighty men from this Division, who were at Manassas Junction, was attacked by about 150 rebels on Friday, and retreated with the loss of two Lieutenants and fifteen taken prisoners.

Capt. Conger, of the 3d Virginia cavalry, with thirty-five men, who had been on a scouting expedition and was on his return, met the same party of rebels between Catlett's Station and Warrenton. Capt. Conger attacked and dispersed this body, killing several members of the 13th Virginia cavalry, and taking two prisoners.

In the engagement Capt. Conger was seriously wounded, and remained on the field over night, where he was taken care of by a resident of the neighborhood, and carried to his home and his wounds cared for.

The whole loss of Capt. Conger in the fight was one wounded and three prisoners.

Capt. Dahlgren, who went out to look after Capt. Conger, reports him dangerously wounded. He was probed in the chest by the rebels, who proposed to send him to our line, but he was too badly hurt to be moved, and a surgeon was sent to his assistance.

From Cairo.

St. Louis, Oct. 27.—One of the most serious disasters which has visited our river, marine for many years occurred to-day about noon. A fire was discovered in the hold of the steamer H. D. Bacon, while she was unloading hemp at the foot of Locust street. The fire spread with great rapidity, creating alarm and commotion among adjacent stevedores, and before they could be removed the McGill, McDowell, Estlin and the W. H. Fortress Monroe, October 25.—The following items are from the Richmond Examiner of October 23:

Travelers from Winchester report our army crossing the Potomac last Monday into Maryland.

A great many persons have sought and obtained permission to leave the Southern Confederacy. They are generally aliens claiming the protection of one or the other of the European Consuls.

Our pickets attacked the rebels at several points near Nashville on the 22d inst., driving in their pickets, killing several and capturing fifty. Among the killed is W. B. Stokes, Colonel of the reformed Tennesseeans, and one other Federal Colonel. We drove the enemy's forces into their entrenchments at Nashville.

There is a general stampede from Culpeper throughout the country owing to an anticipated early advance of the Yankees in that direction. Hundreds are fleeing from the Potomac, and are again unwilling to undergo like treatment.

The Richmond Whig, of October 22, has the following:

A letter from the Mayor of Wilmington, N. C., says that for the first time in many weary days reports of new cases of fever show a falling off, and we now hope that we have at last reached the worst.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 24th October says:

We have a dispatch from Savannah, Ga., which says: The Abolitionists attacked Ponce de Leon and Coosawatchie yesterday. They were gallantly repulsed by the gunboats at McIntosh Point and Bee Creek Landing by Col. W. L. Walker commanding the troops there. The enemy came in thirteen gunboats and transports.

The Charleston and Savannah Railroad is uninjured.

From New York.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Express professes to have reliable information from semi-official circles in Europe that England and France have decided upon the recognition of the Southern Confederacy if the joint offer of mediation and arbitration for four or six months to be proposed to Mr. Seward are accepted.

They fear a slow insurrection in the South, says the Express, after the 1st of January, and it is to adjust their own citizens residing there ample protection under the arms of their regularly appointed agents that England and France will claim the necessity of recognizing the new Confederation.
